Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

Harrisonburg, Va., November 22.— Mourned as dead for forty years, J. H.
Van Pelt, a native of Harrisonburg, suddenly appeared here last night, coming from Montana. In 1870 the United States War Department reported him as shot and killed by the Indians in a skirmish in Montana. He was at the time a scout in the government service. Memorial services were held here by his relatives.

He now is a wealthy miner. His brother, Jacob Van Pelt, of Harrisonburg, and sister, Mrs. Felix W. Allon, of Harrisonburg, have both identified him. His brother at first refused to believe that it was his brother.

He was a member of McNeill's Valley Rangers in the Civil War, and had been listed as dead for forty years.
